Phinadelphia Society Aids Colored Institute at Christiansburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Christiansburg. Va., April 1.—The contract for the resction of a large brick building on the grounds of the Christiansburg Colored Institute has been awarded. When completed the building will probably cost $30,000. Most of this amount has been donnated by the Society of Friends of Philadelphia, who have taken a deep linterest in this industrial institution for training the negro boys and girls. The school started ten years ago with one building and a half-acre of land It now consists of 185 acres, all being farmed by the students, and ten buildings, besides the one that will be erected this spring. The farm and buildings are valued at $80,000.

DAILY PUZZLES KELLY BOUND OVER ON MURDER CHARGE

Will Answer in Superior Court for Killing of Sam Tayloc.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, N. C., April 1.—Carl Kelly, the young white man who shot and killed Sam Tayloe in the suburbs of the city last night, was given a pre-Himinary hearing in the courthouse this was assisted by Mayor Sterling. The warrant charged him with the murder of Tayloe, H. S. Ward, solicitor; W. C. Rooman and N. L. Simmons representneared for the defendant. Several witnesses were examined. From the evinesses were examined. From the evidence given it seems that the shooting was the result of an old grudge which had been existing between the two men for some time. It appeared that Kelly had threatened Tayloe prior to this meeting.

The attorney for the defense did not offer any evidence. He will prepare a piea later.

Kelly was bound over to the Superior

LOSES VALUABLE HORSES,

Fredericksburg Man Has Hard Luck With Baltimore Animals.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Fredericksburg, Va. April 1.—F. W. Feuerherd, of this city, went to Baltimore recently and burchased a handsome driving horse. After the horse arrived it broke a blood vessel and had to be shot. Mr. Feuerherd again went to Baltimore and purchased another fine looking horse from the same dealer. The horse arrived safely, and Wednesday evening was driven several miles about the city at moderate speed by the owner. When he returned from the drive it was noticed that the horse seemed nervous, and a veterinarian was sent for, who treated the horse, but the next day that animal also died. All this occurred within ten days. The cost of the two animals was over $400.
